

GAMBLERS' REPLY TO BERRY'S STATEMENT CONCERNING VOTE

Charge that Nye County Assemblyman Made a Misrepresentation of Facts Concerning Gambling in Southern Nevada.

The statement made by Mr. Berry on the floor of the assembly last Wednesday afternoon, of gamblers living in their trunks, is refuted by three of Tonopah's leading citizens in the following communication:

"Tonopah, Nev., Feb. 27, 1909.

"To Mr. Fred Berry, Carson, Nevada.

"In reply to the reasons you gave out for your voting for the anti-gambling bill, we wish to inform you of a few facts relative to the gamblers.

"It is stated in a Reno paper that you said the gamblers lived in their trunks and could move to a new location without the trouble of winding up their affairs. Now we would like to know if that definition would not fit you? A careful search of the tax lists here fails to reveal your name, and shows that you do not own a single article of taxable property. We live in our homes here, but we understand that the only home you lay claim to is in your office which you turn into a sleeping apartment at night. We pay taxes here on real and personal property, and then you have the unlimited nerve of asserting that we live in 'our trunks.'

"Don't you think, Mr. Berry, that your allegations were made a little hastily and before you had carefully considered the matter?

"We are human, just the same as you, and have done more for the up-building of this city than you have, and we venture to say, more than you ever will do. Our money is invested in the different mining camps of Nevada, and whenever we secure a few hundred dollars it is reinvested, and not used to pay the expenses of a pleasure trip to California and other states.

"In your letter to the Bonanza you state that should the bill pass the better element of gamblers will adapt themselves to vocations beneficial to the communities where they make their homes.

"In response to that paragraph, Mr. Berry, we think that you are doing those interested in gambling a rank injustice, and cannot think that

Assembly Takes Prompt Action When It is Declared that a Member is Whipsawed into Line.

(By Special Correspondence.)

CARSON, Feb. 26.—The assembly committee on public morals today put the "kibosh" on Winters' local option liquor bill, with the seal of its disapproval, and reported favorably Giffen's bill putting the lid on dance halls and ill fame joints, with some minor amendments. Though the assembly usually pays little attention to committee recommendations, these two will probably go as they lay.

Committees reported adversely the bill making an appropriation for paying expenses of Nevada delegates to National Commercial and Industrial congress, and for a typist for the secretary of state. The latter measure passed the senate. The senate bill abolishing the state board of public utility, which, in its fatal effect, means firing Sam Davis from his soft snap job, was favorably reported.

These bills were passed: Assembly bill, No. 42—Eight hours for mill employees; senate amendments being concurred in. Senate substitute for assembly bill, No. 55—adequate crews for railway trains. Assembly substitute for senate bill, No. 34—abolishing officer of state auditor, and Brook's bill fixing salaries of a job lot of Esmeralda county clerks and assistants.

The Reno Journal stated in its report of the final vote on the anti-gambling bill, that McCafferty was "clubbed into support of the measure

A STRONG BANK

Must be well managed.
Must have large resources.
Must have sufficient cash resources to meet all demands.
Should be seasoned by experience and its strength proven by financial disorders and business calamities.

LATEST STYLES IN FURNISHING GOODS ARRIVE

THE TOGGERY SECURES SOLE
AGENT RIGHTS FOR FA-MOUS HATS.

The Toggery, Tonopah's leading haberdashery, has just received a consignment of Dunlap hats, which are famous the world over for their workmanship. The shipment consists of all the latest styles in head gear, and is direct from the eastern factory.

Mr. J. Sands, the proprietor of the establishment, on opening the store several months ago, sent in large orders for furnishing goods to the eastern factories, which has delayed the arrival of his stock. These shipments have just started to arrive and from now on the store will be supplied with nothing but the latest and best goods on the market. Mr. Sands has had a life experience in the furnishing goods business and for many years conducting a large house in Colorado, where the name of "Sands" is a sure guarantee for a square deal and it will be on these lines that the Tonopah store will be conducted. No article will be misrepresented and purchasers can be assured of receiving goods of only the standard grade.

PERMISSION IS GRANTED TO EXAMINE BANK

COURT ORDERS THAT BANK EXAMINER BE ALLOWED TO INVESTIGATE.

The attorneys for J. J. Mullen and Gilbert Ross, receivers for the Nye and Ormsby County bank, appeared in the district court yesterday morning and asked that permission be granted T. R. Hofer, state bank examiner, the privileges of investigating the affairs of the bank. The court consented and issued the following order:

On motion of Messrs. Bartlett, Thatcher and Gibbons, counsel for receivers, J. J. Mullen and Gilbert C. Ross, of the Nye and Ormsby County bank, a corporation, it is ordered that Mr. T. R. Hofer, bank examiner of the state of Nevada, will be permitted to examine the books, records and other matters of the Nye and Ormsby County bank by arrangement with the receivers as to time, place and other details, and this examination may continue until further order of this court.

ARRESTED FOR STEALING WOOD

One of the watchmen employed by the railroad company arrested an unknown individual last night for stealing wood from the railroad yard. The prisoner was placed in the city jail and will probably be tried Monday in the justice court. The officer discovered two men around a wood car and as he started to approach them to investigate, one took to his heels and disappeared in the darkness. The other was captured.
